

RICHARD G. LUCARELLI, DO, FAAFP

Objective

A board certified family physician with interests in outpatient care

Employment

1994 – Now Medical Group of the Carolinas, Family Medicine-Duncan
an affiliate of Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System
Responsible for starting this hospital owned practice

1992 – 1994 Atlantic Medical Center, Oak Hall, VA
Eastern Shore Rural Health, Inc.
A community health center in a federally designated physician under served area

Education

1990 – 1992 Family Medicine Residency, PGY 2 and PGY 3
Spartanburg Regional Healthcare System, Spartanburg, SC
An allopathic residency at a community based hospital.
Honors in pediatrics, internal medicine, surgery rotations

1990 OB/GYN Residency
Three months PGY 1 position

1989 – 1990 Osteopathic Rotating Internship
AtlantiCare Regional Medical Center, Atlantic City, NJ
Chief intern at an inner city hospital

1985 – 1989 Doctor of Osteopathy
University of Medicine and Dentistry of New Jersey – School
Of Osteopathic Medicine, Stratford, NJ

1981 – 1985 Bachelor of Arts in Chemistry
State University of New York at Binghamton

1977 – 1981 Monsignor Farrell High School, Staten Island, NY

Professional Memberships and Activities

Active Medical Staff, Board Physician Advisory Council - SRHS
Governance Council Member – RPN
Team Physician for James F. Byrnes High School football team
American Board of Family Practice – Certified 1993, Recertified 2000 and 2007
National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examiners – Diplomate 1990
American Academy of Medical Review Officers – Certified 2004
American Academy of Family Practice
Active medical license SC, Inactive medical license in VA and NY
Fellow American Academy of Family Practice – 2011
Medical Disciplinary Commission, SC Board of Medical Examiners - 2016

Hobbies and Interests

Skiing, Hiking, Environmental Preservation, Universal Healthcare